

Material Culture/Artefact Database

INSTITUTION	ITEM(S)	DESCRIPTION
Mid Antrim Museum	A collection of documents, photographs and books by Sandy Bell	A collection of documents, photographs and books by Sandy Bell
Mid Antrim Museum	A collection of handmade and handwritten anthologies of artwork and prose by the pupils of R L Russell of Tullygrawley School 1930s-1950s	A collection of handmade and handwritten anthologies of artwork and prose by the pupils of R L Russell of Tullygrawley School 1930s-1950s
Mid Antrim Museum	A collection of linocuts made by the pupils of R L Russell of Tullygrawley School 1930s-1950s	A collection of linocuts made by the pupils of R L Russell of Tullygrawley School 1930s-1950s
Mid Antrim Museum	A collection of CDs of Ulster Scots Orchestra, local musicians, lambeg drummers, Orange bands etc	A collection of CDs of Ulster Scots Orchestra, local musicians, lambeg drummers, Orange bands etc
BBC Archive (Belfast)	Archived material including radio programs, films, photographs and press office collections – particularly notable for its celebration of Ulster Scots customs and focus on the work of key Ulster Scots writers including Sam Hanna Bell and John Boyd.	From 1924 to present day - Includes 800 radio programs on various formats; 500 cans of 16mm cinefilm; 10,000 B/W and Colour, prints, negatives and contact sheets Access by Special Request Only
Causeway Museum	Sam Henry Collection – photograph Originally from Coleraine, local man Sam Henry held many interests including genealogy, folklore and folk music, poetry, archaeology and photography. The collection contains a wide array of items pertaining to these interests including a large	Aghadowey Presbyterian Church photographic collection providing an insight to life in Ulster over the period of his life (1878-1952).

Causeway Museum	MacNeill-Green Collection	Armour Home, Tyrone
Causeway Museum	MacNeill-Green Collection	Arthur's House, Cullybackey
Causeway Museum	MacNeill-Green Collection	Ballintoy Village
Causeway Museum	MacNeill-Green Collection	Bovevagh Church
Causeway Museum	MacNeill-Green Collection
Northern Ireland Community Archive	Museum collections, tourist trails, photographs and oral testimonies particularly relating to Counties Antrim and Down	http://niarchive.org/
Ulster Folk and Transport Museum	The Ulster Dialect Archive	The Ulster Dialect Archive includes published and unpublished wordlists and glossaries that document the distinctive speech of the people of the area that comprises the old nine-county Ulster. The paper-based dialect archive contains several manuscript collections, notably the Sir John Byers glossary (c. 1910), the Montgomery manuscript (County Antrim dialect, 1961), and the Huddleston manuscript (Ulster-Scots poetry and prose) Published collections include the donated Ulster-Scots library of Professor Robert J Gregg (1912-1998) and many now rare and out-of-print works. Much of the materials have been electronically captured on a dictionary database and on a dialect literature textbase, and supervised access to these can be arranged by prior appointment.
Ulster Folk and Transport	Still and Moving Image	Collection of half a million

Museum	Archive	images reflecting social, economic, political, cultural, religious and rural life.
Ulster Folk and Transport Museum	Sound Archive	The Ulster Folk and Transport Museum has extensive collections of recorded material, such as oral history interviews, music performance, broadcast and commercial recordings.
Ulster Folk and Transport Museum	Folk Life Archive	The museum's agricultural collection includes significant examples of farming equipment with a variety of archival records The outdoor Folk Museum features many exhibits and exhibit buildings located in both Ballycultra town, the Rural area and the Folk Galleries.
Ulster Folk and Transport Museum	Photographic collection	Over 300,000 images including William A Green Collection covering the period from 1905-1930
Ulster Folk and Transport Museum	Domestic industries	Collection includes artefacts pertaining to life in Ulster accrued since the 1960's
Ulster Folk and Transport Museum	General paraphernalia – Home Rule	Posters and Images demonstrating Anti-Home Rule movement – see for example BELUM.W2011.1320 Anti-Home Rule postcard with image of King William III and featuring Col. Wallace, Edward Carson and Captain Craig declaring 'We Will Not Have Home Rule.' 'Our civil and Religious Liberties we will maintain.'
Ulster Folk and Transport Museum	General paraphernalia – Ulster Solemn League and Covenant	Posters and Images pertaining to the signing of the covenant in 1912 against Home Rule - see for example BELUM.W2011.1283 'The Ulster Scot' by William Watson – depicting a man in Highlander battle dress: 'This land our heritage by richt, Priests ridden saints may grudge us, Three hunner years we hae been here, An deilth'fit they'll Budge us.'

Ulster Folk and Transport Museum	Images of Dr Thomas Percy's demesne, Dromore, County Down		See BELUM.P2.1983 (A) , BELUM.P2.1983 (B) , BELUM.P2.1983 (C)
Ulster Folk and Transport Museum	Orange culture		Collection of Williamite prints
Presbyterian Historical Society	Communion tokens		Communion tokens dating from 17 th century
Museum of Orange Heritage (Belfast)	Williamite Paraphernalia	Wars	Paymasters General's Book of Accounts
Museum of Orange Heritage (Belfast)	Williamite Paraphernalia	Wars	King William III's saddlecloth
Museum of Orange Heritage (Belfast)	Williamite Paraphernalia	Wars	A letter written by King William III with signature and intact seals
Museum of Orange Heritage (Belfast)	Williamite Paraphernalia	Wars	Cork Statuette
Museum of Orange Heritage (Belfast)	Williamite Paraphernalia	Wars	World and Fraternal Items
Museum of Orange Heritage (Loughgall)	Orange Order Paraphernalia		First warrants commissioning the order